

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

VINCENT CHIEW

It is my pleasure to inform you that the board has elected Cliff Son as our new VP Brunei. Cliff has been a long time member of MSBCA and will bring invaluable experience to the board, not to mention his great sense of humour. His passion and dedication to MSBCA will be of great asset to the board, which in turn is a great benefit to our members as well.

At our November meeting, the board had revisited the objectives as outlined in MSBCA's bylaws and re-aligned all our initiatives for the coming year accordingly. Together we strive to bring the most values to our memberships. For starter, our Christmas Potluck will be a full-house event, with over 90 people already signed up. I am confident that each of the upcoming events we have planned will be just as popular. Please keep an eye out for our newsletters for the latest events.

A special thank you goes to our MSBCA dance group, whom has raised $500 for our club, by hosting a "Nasi Lemak Night" in October. MSBCA dance group has been requested to perform at two venues in January. These two venues are as follow:
